

Figures in red added in Jan. 1898.

Special Note, By a survey made July 1907 for the purpose of setting bounds an error of one degree in the angles J and F below was discovered. At the time of the original survey the distances each way from these angles were computed from measurements on offset lines. The red figures show the correct angles and distances by the later survey.

76
A-38

76
A-38